OUTSTANDING AWARDS

CHANCELLOR'S AWARD

The Chancellor's Award honors an outstanding graduating senior scholar and leader who has an exceptional record of academic accomplishment and a high level of campus and community involvement, while maintaining a minimum 3.5 Cumulative GPA. This is the highest award bestowed to one of our graduates.

Recipient: Tristan Minkoff

Aerospace Engineering

As an Aerospace Engineering major, Tristan Minkoff has a passion for exploring which led him to Embry-Riddle. He has proven himself to be an excellent scholar while also devoting his time to activities outside of the classroom.

Some of the activities that Tristan contributed to include modeling gravitational fields of non-spherical bodies or asteroids as part of the Julia Language Ephemeris Reader project - which he presented at the AIAA SciTech Forum in January 2020; the AZLoop hyperloop team - which is a partnership between ERAU and ASU students; the Eagle Space Flight Team -which is a sounding rocket launched to 15,000 ft; and Eagle Aerospace – a high-powered rocket project that flew to 10,000 ft in a student competition. Tristan really is a rocket scientist.

Tristan has worked in the ERAU Financial Aid office for the past two years and is the Lead Student Supervisor. He is also active in Greek life leadership through Order of Omega and his Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity. Tristan has had a busy college experience.

After graduation, Tristan plans to start working with Northrop Grumman as a guidance, navigation, and control engineer for spacecraft. The faculty are confident Tristan will be an engineering alum to watch.

ED KING COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

The Ed King Community Service Award honors a graduating senior who has made an outstanding contribution of time and talent to the community and the University and has a minimum 3.0 Cumulative GPA.

Recipient: Jayla Thirtyacre,

Cyber Intelligence and Security

Jayla Thirtyacre is graduating with a major in Cyber Intelligence and Security as well as minors in Math and Computer Science.

Apart from being on the Dean's list throughout her tenure on campus, Jayla has shown extraordinary leadership and community service in various activities and a strong will to support the broader cybersecurity community in multiple ways.

Jayla has served as the ERAU Swim Club President and was in the ERAU Student Government Association Budget Committee. She was one of the student leads in the inaugural ERAU-Boeing multi-disciplinary capstone project. She is one of the founding members of the first Women in Cybersecurity (WiCyS) student chapter in Arizona here at ERAU and a student volunteer for the new Girl Scouts Cybersecurity Badge activity at ERAU.

She interned and has now accepted a full-time cyber security position in one of the leading government agencies, choosing this from the many job offers available to her. Her service attitude is exemplified by the statement, if someone needs help and she can offer it, "I do it". Among several things she has planned to do in the future, Jayla hopes to also spend more time with her pet horse! We congratulate Jayla on receipt of this award.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations. This is a memorable day for you and a cause for pride and celebration for your family. Enjoy this moment. You worked hard to earn it.

We hope you will remember Embry-Riddle as a place that supported you, challenged you, and prepared you for a life of purpose and contribution.

On behalf of the faculty and staff of the University, we were proud to serve you. You inspired us. Your passion and persistence in pursuing your goals gives us confidence in the future you will help create.

Please know that Embry-Riddle will always welcome you as a Forever Eagle and wish you every success, personally and professionally.

Sincerely,

P. Barry Butler, Ph.D. President Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University

In 2017, P. Barry Butler became the sixth president of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, the world's leading institution of higher education focusing on aviation and aerospace.

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University offers more than 100 bachelor's, master's, and Ph.D. degree programs in its colleges of Arts & Sciences, Aviation, Business, Engineering, and Security & Intelligence. Embry-Riddle educates more than 34,000 students annually at residential campuses in Daytona Beach, Florida, and Prescott, Arizona, through the Worldwide Campus at more than 135 locations in the United States, Europe, Asia, and the Middle East, and through online programs.

Under his presidency, Embry-Riddle continues to expand discovery-driven degree programs and its research park is home to new aerospace patents, technology transfer and startups. Butler has encouraged collaboration with industry, resulting in expedited hiring initiatives with leading aviation and aerospace industries. He is expanding the university's interest in aviation cybersecurity, aviation data analytics and autonomous vehicles. The university also created new partnerships to prime the aviation/aerospace pipeline. As a strong advocate for science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) education, Butler supports a dual-enrollment program with the Gaetz Aerospace Institute. The institute offers more than 40 university courses to students in 84 Florida high schools. At the Arizona Campus, the STEM Education Center serves as a hub of enrichment for students, faculty, researchers and the community.

Previously, Butler was Executive Vice President and Provost of the University of Iowa. He was responsible for more than 100 academic programs in 11 colleges. For ten years, he served as Dean of the College of Engineering.

Butler is on the board of the Hoover Presidential Foundation and The Wings Club. He is a member of The Civic League of the Halifax Area. He is a private and glider pilot.

He earned three degrees from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign: a bachelor's in Aeronautical Engineering, a master's in Astronautical Engineering and a Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering.

CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your great achievement! After all your hard work, you are graduating today. And while your graduation from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University comes at an unprecedented time in history, nothing can ever take away from your past accomplishments or your future prospects.

All of us at Embry-Riddle want to unite the entire 2020 Spring Graduating class to celebrate your special day, even if we have to do it virtually. You have given special dedication and perseverance to get through your demanding course of study and you deserve to be proud of your achievement. Indeed, on behalf of the entire Prescott campus, I am pleased to express our immense pride in you; we are all so happy to share in the enjoyment of your success.

This will no doubt be just one step in many future successes. I wish you the best and hope you stay in touch.

Sincerely,

Dr. Anette M. Karlsson Chancellor of Prescott Campus Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University

Dr. Anette M. Karlsson, a mechanical and aerospace engineer and a highly accomplished academic leader, brings stellar credentials, superb executive experience, a passion for both engineering and aviation and a teamoriented approach to the Embry-Riddle Prescott campus.

A Fellow of the American Society of Mechanical Engineering, Dr. Karlsson earned her Ph.D. in mechanical and aerospace engineering at Rutgers University, within the area of applied mechanics. She completed her bachelor's and master's degrees at Linkoping University in Sweden. Dr. Karlsson conducted postdoctoral research at Princeton University before joining the University of Delaware, where she later became chair of the Department of Mechanical Engineering.

Earlier in her career, she worked as a research/design engineer for Saab Missiles and Saab Aerospace, and as a technical attaché of material science for Sweden's Embassy in the United States. Her research interests focus on the thermo-mechanical properties of advanced materials with an emphasis on the durability of materials used in clean energy production. Dr. Karlsson has published more than 80 peer-reviewed international journal articles and she has been the primary adviser for more than 15 doctoral and master's degree students. Dr. Karlsson's many honors and awards have included the U.S. Office of Naval Research Young Investigator Award, the University of Delaware's E.A. Trabant Award for Women's Equity as well as the Young Scholars Award of the Francis Alison Society and membership in the engineering honor society, Tau Beta Pi. As Embry-Riddle's new Chancellor on the Prescott Campus, listening, learning and gaining trust have been important first steps for her and an essential foundation to elevate Embry-Riddle's Prescott Campus

NOTES ON ACADEMIC COSTUME

The attire worn by the graduates, faculty, and officers of the University for Commencement exercises has historic roots in the distant medieval past. Dressed in cap and gown, graduates and professors form part of a long tradition, which dates back to Paris, Bologna, Oxford and Cambridge.

The precise origins of the several parts of the academic garb are not easy to discover. However, since medieval students enjoyed the status of clerics during their University years, one may assume that their attire found its inspiration in the clerical dress of medieval times. The gown seems to be an adaptation of the robe of the friar or priest; the hood resembles the monk's or friar's cowl; and the mortarboard cap may have evolved from the skullcaps that were needed to protect against the drafts of medieval classrooms.

Academic attire began to appear on campuses in the United States in the late 1890s. Since that time, its use has become universal for University functions, and its pattern is highly uniform.

THE GOWN

The bachelor's gown is a yoked, closed-front garment, with long, pointed sleeves; the master's gown has full, bell-shaped sleeves. Only the doctor's gown is trimmed — with velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Black is also proper for the color of the gown; however, some universities have adopted distinctive colors for these gowns, and the wearer has the option of wearing his/her school color or black.

Though black velvet is proper trimming for all doctor gowns, the color of the panels and sleeve bars is often varied, in order to indicate the faculty that granted the wearer's degree:

- Dark Blue for Philosophy
- Light Blue for Education
- White for Arts and Letters
- Gold-Yellow for Science
- Orange for Engineering
- Purple for Law
- Brown for Management

THE CAP

The mortarboard has become the universally accepted style in colleges and universities of the United States. Many European institutions still retain distinctive forms of academic headdress.

The doctor, following graduation, has the right to wear a gold tassel on the mortarboard; black, however, is perfectly proper. The practice of varying the color of the tassel on the others has gained acceptance:

- White for Arts
- Gold-Yellow for Science
- Dark Blue for Philosophy
- Light Blue for Education
- Drab Brown for Commerce
- Red for Technology
- Purple for Law
- Orange for Engineering

THE HOOD

The hood at first seems to have been worn over the head and was attached to the gown. When the skullcap was introduced, the hood was retained but detached and worn much as it is today. Each degree (bachelor, master, doctor) has a special hood, which varies in length. The doctor's also varies in pattern.

The color or colors with which the hood is lined are those of the college or university, which granted the wearer's degree — for example, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, is known by the gold chevron on the field of royal blue. The colored velvet binding or edging of the hood, in different widths for the bachelor, master, and doctor, is the key to the faculty granting the degree. The colors follow the same scheme indicated above for the panels of the doctor's gown.

The particular field of graduate study is indicated by the color of the satin binding:

- Gold for Human Factors and Systems
- Lemon for Engineering Physics
- Silver for Aeronautics
- Drab Brown for Business Administration, Business Administration in Aviation Management, Aviation Finance, and Project Management
- Orange for Aerospace Engineering, Cybersecurity Engineering, Electrical and Computer Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Software Engineering, Unmanned and Autonomous Systems Engineering, Software Engineering, and Multidisciplinary Engineering

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

On behalf of the Office of Alumni Engagement, we welcome you to the Embry-Riddle alumni family.

Together with over 135,000 other alumni located around the globe, you are now EAGLES FOR LIFE. You are forever united through your shared passion and experiences at Embry-Riddle.

As you progress in your career, we will provide you with programs to enhance your alumni experience and support your professional development. We know that you will soar to new heights as leaders in your careers and the aerospace industry.

Recently, you received a pin signifying your alumni status. Wear it with pride, as it is a symbol of your alma mater.

We encourage you to stay connected; come visit your campus; attend alumni networking events and homecomings; and always help your fellow Eagles when they need mentorship, guidance and support.

Congratulations and remember, you are Forever an Eagle!
