The income reported on the student's 2021-2022 FAFSA appears to be unusually low. Before we can determine the student's financial aid eligibility, you must provide us with a comprehensive listing of all sources of income you received from January 2019 through December 2019. Please include any cash gifts you received or any other forms of support you received in all of 2019. This information will be used to explain your living arrangements. Do not use cents; please round to the whole dollar amount.

Parent's Monetary Support Received:

1.	Amount of any cash support paid (gift cards, travel, gas, etc.) on your family's behalf by anyone in all of 2019.	$
2.	Amount of any bills paid (rent, utility, food, cell phone, etc.) on your family's behalf by anyone in all of 2019.	$
3.	Amount of government assistance such as: food stamps, subsidized housing, Women, Infants and Children Program (WIC), National School Lunch and Breakfast Programs, etc., received in all of 2019.	$
4.	Amount of veteran's educational benefits received in all of 2019.	$

Did you receive financial aid during the 2020-2021 academic year to assist with living expenses?  YES  NO

Other:

In the space provided below, please provide a detailed explanation of how your family was able to meet all of the family's expenses for shelter, food, transportation, utilities, clothing, educational expenses, etc., in all of 2019 based on the income that was reported on the student's 2021-2022 FAFSA and the information provided above:
